Ruth had never been with a white man, and she never thought that she would be, but when he caught her at the bar, attraction was instant. She couldn't tell if it was his green eyes, the stubble on his chin, or that smirk that made it seem like he had already won, but she wasn't able to turn away. A quick meeting turns into so much more when she finds herself back at the apartment of a white man who loved to take control. It's exactly what Ruth needed, even if she didn't know it yet.
