Greed (Italian Edition) Davide Volonté

Lorenzo, Tommaso, Monica e Michele non si conoscono e apparentemente non hanno legami. L'inaspettata opportunità di vivacizzare le loro esistenze ordinarie sembra giungere da un noto network satellitare, che li ha sorteggiati per partecipare alla prima edizione di un reality show. Un colpo di fortuna straordinario, un'occasione da non lasciarsi sfuggire.

Ai concorrenti si chiede di competere per quattro giorni e quattro notti all'interno di una residenza fuori città, sperduta tra i boschi. Il premio: una valigetta contenente duecentomila euro in contanti, che deve rimanere sul tavolo del soggiorno per l'intera durata del format.

L'isolamento forzato, la brama di vittoria e la presenza del denaro si dimostrano elementi decisivi per l'equilibrio della convivenza. I partecipanti devono fronteggiare una serie di novità che non hanno il tempo di assimilare, eventi che assumono tinte forti e generano dei sospetti sempre più consistenti sul reale scopo della trasmissione. Il ritmo resta serrato e la verità affiora lentamente, confondendosi tra le pieghe del gioco.
