Passerotti & Friends (Italian Edition) Fabrizio La Rosa

Peripezie di un ex-cittadino che, trasferitosi in campagna, si improvvisa artigiano, giardiniere e contadino. Questa nuova esperienza lo espone a problematiche e difficoltà sconosciute, lo coinvolge in disavventure più o meno comiche, lo porta ad affrontare una natura capricciosa se non proprio ostile.

Il tutto sotto gli occhi di Tex, cucciolo di pastore maremmano, secondo il venditore, ma palesemente figlio di una madre... intemperante. E' bellissimo: manto candido come la neve, occhi azzurri come l'oceano, musetto vispo; è vivace, estroverso, gioioso e dotato di una straordinaria capacità di comunicazione.

A dispetto della sua mole - da adulto arriverà a cinquanta chili - Tex è un pacifista convinto, capace di convivere con una gattina, di dividere la sua ciotola con una cornacchetta, di soccorrere un merletto caduto dal nido e magari di giocare con una ranocchia anche se, per eccesso di esuberanza, finisce poi per... Non l'ho mai visto aggredire un suo simile ma, al bisogno, è stato pronto a rischiare la pelle per difendere il branco da un tentativo di rapina.

Le voci narranti sono due ed esprimono, rispettivamente, i punti di vista dell'uomo e del cane sulle avventure che condividono, sui loro atteggiamenti, sulla loro filosofia esistenziale.

Il tono umoristico - non potrebbe essere diversamente, visti i soggetti - cambia bruscamente quando il tempo inesorabile esige il rispetto di una regola alla quale nessuna specie vivente potrà mai sottrarsi. E nei capitoli finali l'ironia diventa commozone.

Credo d'aver interpretato al meglio pensieri, opinioni, sentimenti che il mio indimenticabile Tex ha espresso nel tempo che abbiamo trascorso insieme, sulle avventure che abbiamo condiviso e sono convinto che, se avesse potuto "leggerlo", Tex sarebbe stato d'accordo su quanto ho scritto su di lui.
