Relativismo y tolerancia (Spanish Edition) Diego Poole

Si los principios o valores que rigen la convivencia social y que informan el contenido de las normas jurídicas se justifican únicamente como expresión del sentir colectivo, si este sentir cambia, cambiarán también los principios. Los defensores del relativismo ético y jurídico niegan la existencia de unos principios universales de justicia radicados en la naturaleza de los hombres, y todo lo confían a la opinión y sentir mayoritarios. ¿Cuáles son los argumentos fundamentales que esgrimen los relativistas para defender su postura? Aquí los veremos con detenimiento y trataremos de comprender, en la medida de lo posible, su postura. En un segundo momento hacemos una valoración crítica del relativismo, y presentamos una argumentación alternativa que trata de justificar la existencia de unos principios universales de comportamiento que trascienden las modas y culturas.
