Tom Swift Selected Plays: Original plays by Tom Swift Tom Swift, Peter Crawley

The inaugural production of Performance Corporation in 2002 matched

Voltaire's withering assault against the doctrine of optimism with a playful aesthetic and endlessly inventive stagecraft. Each play in this collection was originally staged by the Performance Corporation and though Swift has explored different avenues ever since, such playfulness is a constant.

The writing is precise, but leaves room for the discoveries of rehearsals, the flesh of the theatre.

All plays are blueprints for performance, but several of these scripts – many of which are site-specific and all of them slyly topical – are documents for something unrepeatable.
