Selena, a gossip writer for a gossip magazine finds love again with Rick, a police detective. These two have a hard time in the beginning getting together and they both struggle with fear of getting hurt again. Though, right away he falls in love with her and just as the title states he becomes all messed up and crazy for her. They face many obstacles along the way and so does the other two sub main characters Derrick and Veronica. As these four lives get involved with some dangerous criminals who make their lives a living nightmare. Between trying to keep their relationships they also have to fight to stay alive. Their love gets tested more than can be expected and Selena is later faced with a different career path. This is definitely a dramatic love story with a great sense of suspense throughout this story. Selena and Veronica find themselves in a great deal of trouble and Derrick and Rick find themselves in danger on more than one occasion from a few criminals that want to see them dead and they won't stop until someone pays for what they did to a member of their cartel family.
