Four Serious Songs

Johannes Brahms

Four Serious Songs Johannes Brahms

Beautifully edited by trombonist Barnaby Kerekes, these songs are now available for Tenor or Bass Trombone and piano. Take a look in Robert King or Hickey's catalogues and you will not find much Brahms for trombone. I promise you will be thrilled with the sound of these songs. All audiences just love the sound of these songs for trombone and piano. The songs of Brahms's famous song cycle have been tastefully edited. If you practice the Rochut melodious etudes for trombone you will know the value of being able to perform with a smooth lyrical musical line. These songs will add depth to your playing and add some real depth and variety to your recital. They are of moderate difficulty in a male baritone vocal range. Range goes to a very moderate in the middle register for the most part and can be played on Tenor or Bass Trombone.
