A Memoir of the Rev. Edward Payson, Late of Portland, Maine (Classic Reprint) Asa Cummings
Excerpt from A Memoir of the Rev. Edward Payson, Late of Portland, Maine

In this edition, whatever was judged to be of mere local interest, and a portion of the comments which had been largely interspersed, are omitted, under the sanction of the author. The exhibition of Dr. Payson's life and character, especially as shown in his own journal and correspondence, is full; and every thing retained which was supposed to be of general interest to the intelligent and pious reader.

District of Maine, to Wit:

District Clerk's Office.

Be it remembered, That on the twenty-fifth day of February, A. D 1830, and in the fifty-fourth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Mrs. Ann L. Payson, of said district, has deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof she claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit:

"A Memoir of the Rev. Edward Payson, D. D. late Pastor of the Second Church in Portland. Bene orasse est bene studeisse. - Luther."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books, to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned;" and also to an act, entitled, "An Act supplementary to an act, entitled, 'An Act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies during the times therein mentioned; and for extending the benefits thereof to the arts of designing, engraving, and etching historical and other prints."
