''Margery Scott crafts a suspenseful read that you can't put down. I look forward to more from this author.'' --Bestselling author Linda Wisdom

"Secrets from the past threaten newfound love in this action-packed suspense." -- Bestselling author Caridad Piñeiro

An unforgivable disappearance...

Four years ago, Jennie Brooks and Sheriff Brae Colton were engaged to be married—then Jennie disappeared without a word.

Leads to a mysterious reunion...

Brae has always hated Jennie for deserting him just as they were set to begin their life together. But when he finds her badly injured in a hit and run accident on a snowy mountain road, he can't deny the love he's never forgotten. He hopes for a second chance at love—until she regains consciousness with no memory of her identity, or what they once shared.

Where love holds the key to everything...

Despite their past, Jennie's still the woman Brae fell in love with in high school—the woman he's falling for again. The mysteries surrounding her disappearance, and her injuries, make him wonder if he can trust her, but when the bullets start flying, his first priority is to protect her and catch her would-be killer. If they can't find a way to restore her memory soon, they may both end up dead, any chance at love gone forever.
