Nowhere in Pennsylvania is there a synchronicity between geography and history as there is in Carbon County. Intersected by the majestic Lehigh River in the picturesque Pocono Mountains, this is a county built on the discovery of anthracite coal, the fortitude of early settlers, and the boundless imaginations of men like Josiah White, Erskine Hazard, and Asa Packer. For over a century, Carbon County's breathtaking scenery, stunning Victorian architecture, and natural landmarks, such as Hitcheltooth Cliffs and Glen Onoko Falls, have attracted travelers. Whether riding on the hair-raising Switchback Railroad or staying at the American Hotel (now the Inn at Jim Thorpe), travelers loved postcards, many of which are featured in this book. Compiled from some of the finest collections of vintage postcards in the state, Carbon County is a visual treasure documenting the haunting beauty and idiosyncrasies of the area.

John Hill:

As a student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make a summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just very little students that have reading's spirit or real their pastime. They just do what the teacher wants, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise words say, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore, this Carbon County (Postcard History) can make you sense more interested to read.
