This 25 minute audio book is an ancillary CD to "The PMBOK Audio Digest" by Praizion Media. The CD is an audio review of how to ensure one is qualified to take the PMP exam. It discusses the years of experience and hours candidates are required to have under their belt in managing projects, the hours of formal project management education they are required to have and it focuses on preparing and studying for the exam. Many aspiring PMPs will find this information on how to structure study and preparation especially useful. Success is largely achieved with a solid PMP study methodology such as the one described in this CD.
