Reformation Patterns For Building Gods House Greg Crawford

The patterns of reform are clear in the Bible and how they touched all areas of society. This short but powerful book covers those patterns and the examples given. It also covers how to transition through seasons of change both as an individual and as a leader. We should also be sure to have "principles" in the things we attempt to do. We soon see that if we are not constantly bring reform then a season of reform comes. A must read for those desiring to understand reformation from a biblical point of view.
