Bleeding Love Dominique Thomas

Jess had always been the good girl. Church, school then a little more church was her life. She wasn't the girl to get asked on dates or even have a lot of friends. She mainly kept to herself until she was noticed by the one guy she had been dreaming about since she hit puberty. Deon was a force that Jess had no choice but to allow to come in and sweep her away. He was too charming, too handsome, and too tempting. He didn't have rules and he didn't let Jess' young age stop him from getting what he wanted, which was her. Jess fought him off for as long as she could but finally gave in. Her life seemed to change overnight. She became confident. She was able to get the clothes that she wanted and be the girl that other guys liked and females wanted to befriend. Deon was her king and she just wanted to make him happy. She went against her parents' wishes and everything she believed in to be with him and she would have taken on the world for him if she had to. He gave her everything she ever wanted and she found herself so wrapped up in him that she could see nothing else. Her fairytale soon turned into a nightmare once she learned she wasn't the only girl he was loving. Next were the fights and the drama. Trying to leave Deon became a war that she wasn't prepared to fight. What do you do when someone you love so much hurts you? How can you leave them when you can't even go a day without them? Love is many things but it should never hurt. For Jessenia her life was nice until it wasn't. She fell in love with a man that really didn't love her at all and the battle to get back to herself wasn't going to be an easy one. He said he loved her and she believed him. His type of love was pain most of the time and she started to bleed his love right out of her until one day she noticed the love was gone. To leave Deon, Jess has to find herself and find her strength. Will she succeed or will she forever be wrapped up in a man that really loves no one but himself?
