Princípio da Litigiosidade Mínima: Tutela Coletiva, Transacional e Arbitragem (Portuguese Edition)

Wilson Euclides Guazzi Massali

Massali nos ensina neste livro que é possível desinchar o sistema de justiça e reduzir o grau de litígios, simplesmente abrindo caminho para a incidência das esferas de tutela coletiva e inibitória (consensual, de preferência). Claro que isso requer o que o autor chama de "mudança de mentalidade", porque uma justiça como a brasileira - clientelista, classista e cooperativista - não está nem disposta nem preparada para "perder e ceder poderes", nem para outras instituições estatais ou sociais, nem para as próprias partes (...). Enfim, o leitor tem em mãos um livro indispensável, que ajudará todos aqueles que, como operadores do sistema legal de controle social, ainda acreditam na democracia como único caminho para buscar uma sociedade mais igualitária e justa.
