Spike Steve Powell

He met a sizzling hot stranger on a train, blacked out, then awoke smarter and better than he was before. But things get even more complicated as a large sum of money appears in his bank account and now: he's wanted. With the odds stacked against him he relies on instinct alone. Then when a mysterious voice on a mobile-phone starts directing him he accepts that the world has gone mad and the woman from the train could surely make sense of it all if she hadn't vanished.
