Lo scrigno della morte (Italian Edition) Giuseppe Pozzi

Karl Vaisser è il curatore del museo navale della città di Bremerhaven. Durante la seconda guerra mondiale comandava quale capitano della marina militare tedesca l'U-Boat, uno dei sommergibili più temuti dagli alleati. Nel corso del conflitto ha comandato anche una nave mercantile, la Marlene Dietrich, ma il suo affondamento lo rese prigioniero degli inglesi fino alla fine del conflitto. Dopo anni da quella che sembrava una lontana guerra, gli vengono recapitati una busta e un pacco. Questo materiale è l'inizio della storia che si intreccia tra passato e presente. Gli incontri con commilitoni perduti durante gli anni, lo riportano lontano nel tempo, al tempo della guerra. Il presente è solo l'intreccio di enigmi, che riuscirà a districare con l'aiuto del suo amico Gus. Però non sono i soli a raggiungere il punto esatto dello "scrigno", la competizione emerge dal passato, sconvolgente, con una visione apocalittica della rinascita del terzo Reich.
