Excerpt from Mothers of Maine

Dear Mothers of the long ago!
Your children's lullabies,
By cradles that the ages know
Ascended to the skies.
You sang the song of hope and faith,
Of courage and content -
A song that sweetly echoeth
Across the continent.

Dear Daughters of the grand to-day!
We sing the song to you.
O listen well, and watch, and pray -
Strive nobler deeds to do,
And when the years to hundreds swing
And other centuries come,
May new grand-daughters better sing
The Mother and the Home.
