He wants me to fuck about with paper clips in some office with a smile on my face, fuck him . . . but there's just one thing I've got to take care of first. I've got to do something to make this right.

Four years on from the collapse of the Lehman Brothers and still we find ourselves in crisis. It's time to work out what's wrong. It's time to look at the heart of the system.

You Can Still Make A Killing is the story of the normal men and women who fill the City's institutions, of a world radically altered when right became wrong, and of the private worlds that fall apart when there are no alternatives in sight.

This production reunites director Matthew Dunster with playwright Nicholas Pierpan, following their collaboration in 2010 on Pierpan's play The Maddening Rain (Old Red Lion and Soho Theatre). The cast includes Alecky Blythe (writer of London Road), which marks her much-anticipated return to acting, and Kellie Bright (Love and Money, Royal Exchange and Young Vic). It will run at the Southwark Playhouse in its main house (which holds 150 seats) from 10 October until 3 November 2012. A German production will open at Theatre Ulm in April, 2013.

As a college student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this You Can Still Make A Killing (Modern Plays) can make you really feel more interested to read.
