Cold Secrets Billie Hines

The scent of grape filled the air. The groves were in full bloom. Rhoda loved this time of year more than any other. The scent of grape, the flower or the fruit, always made her feel erotic. Enjoying the scents, though, was not the same as enjoying the tingling flesh of another--a man to share her wanton joy. Over a year had passed since her husband had been killed in an accident, and for a while, She had coped, but now the groves were in bloom, and she-was having a difficult time. Walking through the grove now, her cunt became very moist, getting wetter with each step.
