The Caves of Kazoo Ron G. Copeland

He had made an astounding discovery the night of the fire, a discovery he couldn't tell anyone about, so he wanted to learn all he could about the city of Kalamazoo, the old mansion, and the McFarland family. If he was at fault for the fire, he somehow had to try to make everything right. The city of Kalamazoo is relatively quiet and a good place to raise a family. However, the old McFarland mansion that looms over Kalamazoo is a dark reminder of unanswered questions in its past. The Bergens family has a reputation as not only the most honorable family in town but the best thing to happen to the high school football team in Kalamazoo history. A painful past drew Angela Bergen to Jesus, but it has pushed husband, Josh, into an exhausting spiral of self-reliance. When a series of strange crimes finally ends up on the same street as the Bergens, will they be able to band together and solve the mystery? What is Junior Bergen's strange secret? Follow Ron Copeland as he weaves an intricate and uplifting family mystery about how God can turn any circumstance into something good for those who love him.
