Greetings, Hero Aiden O'Reilly

Greetings, Hero is for the outsiders. This short story collection, the first of widely published Irish author Aiden O'Reilly, features a dizzying array of characters, stories and dreams. Families, regrets, outsiders, love, death and DIY girlfriends all collide in this collection, with stories stretching across Europe, from building sites in Dublin to the Husemann Strasse n Berlin. Through 17 exquisitely crafted short stories, O'Reilly expertly questions our position in the world - and the role of those pushed to its margins.

"A brilliant debut" --The Independent

"At their best O'Reilly's stories have a distinctive personality of their own" --The Irish Independent

"There are no superheroes in these stories, rather a seeking of better versions of self" --The Irish Times

"O'Reilly's voice is strong, his vision is remarkably clear, and the stories are dotted with beautiful turns of phrase." --Totally Dublin

"The strongest debut collection I have read for some years" --David Rose, author of Posthumous Stories

"Whereas most Irish fiction is like travelling in a plush car where you marvel at the landscape, Aiden O'Reilly's is like travelling on public transport with students and immigrants, like feeling you are actually in the country." --Joe Horgan, The Bogman's Cannon
