Glimpses Within Life Patricia Annette Weir

Glimpses Within Life is a compilation of poems encompassing love, humour, sadness and joy, hope and comfort. Some poems are of a spiritual content, written to ease the suffering from grief. The book also contains poems relating to war and its devastating and lasting effects. Patricia maintains that all her writings come from divine inspiration and spring into mind all wrapped in love. She proclaims that all her writings are done better with God than without him.
